

CENTER FOR Partnership
STUDIES

STRONGER TOGETHER

Partnership Systems
for a Caring & Connected Future

“Raising the status of girls and women is the missing foundation for more equitable and peaceful cultures worldwide. A partnership society offers us a viable alternative.”

~ Riane Eisler

“We cannot succeed
when half of us are held back.”

~ Malala Yousafzai

“You should never let your fears prevent you from doing what you know is right.”

~ Aung San Suu Kyi

“We can work together for a better world with men and women of goodwill, those who radiate the intrinsic goodness of humankind.”

~ Wangari Maathai

“We are tapping into what the world wants: to be a part of change. Now we have to channel that energy into purposeful action.”

~ Emma Watson, Global Goodwill Ambassador, United Nations Women and HeForShe

What is Partnership?

Power with and power to rather than power over

- Self-empowerment
- Working together for the good of all
- Movement towards gender, LGBT and racial equity
- All voices count
- Living our values

Partnership is...

- Trust, respect and cooperation
- Nurturing mutually enhancing relationships

Becoming a Partnership Leader

1. Deepen your understanding of the Center for Partnership Studies' partnership framework
2. Build confidence in speaking up for a caring society, self-empowerment and gender equality
3. Connect with others around the world who share a passion for transformative cultural change

Humans have such capacity for consciousness, caring, and creativity...

So why has our world seen so much cruelty, insensitivity, and destructiveness?

~ Dr. Riane Eisler

Ancient Partnership Cultures

Peaceful egalitarian societies:
10,000 years ago women and men
were on equal ground

The planetary issues we are facing right now are reflections of a 5,000 year-old domination system we are still living in

Dominator Model:

Power Over

- Rigid top-down ranking
- Violence, largely against women
- Ranking of half of humanity over the other half

-
- Authoritarian control, tyranny, brute force
  - The prime impetus for war since the Stone Age
  - How has your life been impacted by the domination system?

Emerging Partnership Model: Power With and Power To

Facebook redesigned their Friends icon, making both genders equal

The Domination/Partnership Evolution

DOMINATION

Rigid hierarchies of control
“Power over”
Superior/Inferior relations
Dominate or be dominated

PARTNERSHIP

Flexible hierarchies of self-empowerment
“Power with” and “Power To”
Relations of mutual respect
Nurture and sustain life

Recognizing where we are in the gradual evolution from domination to partnership

Domination

Partnership

1	Family &amp; Social Structure	Authoritarian structure and hierarchies of domination in family and society. Top-down control of economic resources. Children observe and experience inequality and inequity as the norm.	Democratic structure and hierarchies of actualization . Caring is economically valued. Egalitarian and equitable adult relations are the norm. Parenting is not authoritarian but authoritative.
2
3
4

Recognizing where we are in the gradual evolution from domination to partnership

Domination

Partnership

1	Family &amp; Social Structure	Authoritarian structure and hierarchies of domination in family and society. Top-down control of economic resources. Children observe and experience inequality and inequity as the norm.	Democratic structure and hierarchies of actualization . Caring is economically valued. Egalitarian and equitable adult relations are the norm. Parenting is not authoritarian but authoritative.
2	Gender Roles &amp; Relations	Ranking of male half of humanity over female half. Rigid gender stereotypes, with “masculine” traits and activities such as toughness and conquest ranked over “feminine” ones such as care giving and nonviolence.	Low degree of fear, abuse, and violence, as they are not needed necessary to maintain top-down rankings. Respect for diversity and human rights.
3
4

Recognizing where we are in the gradual evolution from domination to partnership

Domination

Partnership

1	Family &amp; Social Structure	Authoritarian structure and hierarchies of domination in family and society. Top-down control of economic resources. Children observe and experience inequality and inequity as the norm.	Democratic structure and hierarchies of actualization . Caring is economically valued. Egalitarian and equitable adult relations are the norm. Parenting is not authoritarian but authoritative.
2	Gender Roles &amp; Relations	Ranking of male half of humanity over female half. Rigid gender stereotypes, with “masculine” traits and activities such as toughness and conquest ranked over “feminine” ones such as care giving and nonviolence.	Low degree of fear, abuse, and violence, as they are not needed necessary to maintain top-down rankings. Respect for diversity and human rights.
3	Fear, Abuse &amp; Violence	High degree of fear and violence, from child- and wife-beating to abuse by “superiors” in families, workplaces, and society..	Low degree of fear, abuse, and violence, as they are not needed necessary to maintain top-down rankings. Respect for diversity and human rights.
4

Recognizing where we are in the evolution from domination to partnership

Domination

Partnership

1	Family &amp; Social Structure	Authoritarian structure and hierarchies of domination in family and society. Top-down control of economic resources. Children observe and experience inequality and inequity as the norm.	Democratic structure and hierarchies of actualization . Caring is economically valued. Egalitarian and equitable adult relations are the norm. Parenting is not authoritarian but authoritative.
2	Gender Roles &amp; Relations	Ranking of male half of humanity over female half. Rigid gender stereotypes, with “masculine” traits and activities such as toughness and conquest ranked over “feminine” ones such as care giving and nonviolence.	Low degree of fear, abuse, and violence, as they are not needed necessary to maintain top-down rankings. Respect for diversity and human rights.
3	Fear, Abuse &amp; Violence	High degree of fear and violence, from child- and wife-beating to abuse by “superiors” in families, workplaces, and society..	Low degree of fear, abuse, and violence, as they are not needed necessary to maintain top-down rankings. Respect for diversity and human rights.
4	Narratives	Beliefs and stories justify and idealize domination and violence, which are deemed inevitable, moral, and desirable.	Beliefs and stories present empathic, mutually beneficial, nonviolent relations as normal, moral, and desirable.

“What's good for women
is good for the world.”
– Riane Eisler

Partnership in Families

Caring and connected parent/child relationships are major factors in shaping how we relate to the world, including our capacity to empathize, learn, imagine, and create.

What is Gender Equity?

“Equality is not a concept. It’s not something we should be ‘striving for’. It is a necessity. Equality is like gravity. We need it to stand on this earth as men and women. The misogyny that is in every culture is not a true part of the human condition. It is life out of balance and that imbalance is sucking something out of the soul of every man and woman who is confronted with it.”

—Joss Whedon, American screenwriter, film and television director

“It’s time for a new chapter where we are sincere about dismantling white supremacy and building toward true racial justice and equality.”
-Bree Newsome

photo via danteberry Instagram

Respect for Diversity and Human Rights

What what would it be like to live in a social system that values care?

As long as women are devalued...so also will anything stereotypically associated with women and the “soft” or feminine, such as caring, empathy and nonviolence be devalued.

New Narratives

A close-up photograph of a man with a beard and a black t-shirt holding a newborn baby. The man has several tattoos on his arms, including a large one on his left forearm and another on his right forearm. The baby is wearing a white onesie and is being held in the man's arms. A blue banner with white text is overlaid on the image.

Today, we know that caring is a HUMAN value

“One role of the change maker is to be the eyes and ears of the world. We have the power to change people’s perceptions.”

~ Charles Eisenstein, The More Beautiful World Our Hearts Know is Possible

Partnership in Action

What are some good examples?

Resources

The Center for Partnership Studies

<https://centerforpartnership.org/>

CPS Next Gen Program

https://centerforpartnership.org/programs/partnership\_next\_gen/

Safe Conversations: Shifting from Domination to Partnership |

<https://centerforpartnership.org/news-events/safeconversationswebinar/>

Brie Mathers: Love the Skin You're In

<http://www.briemathers.com/>

Promundo Global: Caring Men

<https://promundoglobal.org/>

Thank
you!